To qualify for a co-broker's commission, the co-broker must show the property and the co-broker's registered customer must be the high bidder, and close on the real estate being auctioned. Further, the co-broker must be an active, duly licensed real estate broker, not prohibited by law, or seller's policies and regulations from participating. In the event the selling broker is already negotiating with buyer, then this agreement will not be honored. Commission paid from total commission collected as follows, Broker gives auctioneer an opening bid, and commission is 20% of the commission on that opening bid and 10% of the commission for all over opening bid. No opening bid commission is 10%.

In the case of multiple registrations of the same prospect by different brokers, the first registration received (as per time accepted by The Auction Way Co, signed below) and signed by the customer and co-broker will be recognized. The co-broker must attend the auction with the prospective bidder. If a co-broker has not met all of the requirements, no commission will be paid, even if its prospect purchases the property. Co-broker assumes and accepts all responsibility and liability for the buyer's due diligence.

By signing below, we certify that we both have read the above terms and conditions of this registration, the terms and conditions of the auction and the due diligence package (if any), and agree to defend and hold The Auction Way Company and Gerald A. Bowie, broker, harmless if there is a claim by any other broker with this prospective bidder/buyer.

The Auction Way Company must receive this registration notice no later than Saturday, September 21 at 5 P.M. There are no provisions for deadline extensions.

FAX THIS DOCUMENT TO THE AUCTION WAY COMPANY AT 706-884-3064 BEFORE CUT OFF DATE.
